

FOR MORE INFORMATION
VISIT CCA INTERACTIVE:
HTTP://CCA.CORNELL.EDU

CORNELL
COUNCIL
FOR THE ARTS

CORNELLPUBLIC: CCA @ NYC

CORNELLPUBLIC: CCA @ NYC, a series of initiatives in public art and creative works, provides a platform for visiting artists, faculty artists, alumni artists and student artists to engage in public work projects on campus (on-site), off campus (off-site), in specific venues in New York City, and in juried exhibitions of new works by emerging alumni artists.

CORNELLPUBLIC: CCA @ NYC PROGRAM

THE ARTS + MENTAL HEALTH: THE IMPACT ON THE HUMAN SPIRIT

- I. Making Art
- II. Observing Art

New York Public Library for the Performing Arts
Bruno Walter Auditorium
40 Lincoln Center Plaza
New York, New York

PERFORMANCES + PANEL DISCUSSION

THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 2011, 6:00 - 7:30 PM

- I. Making Art

Performances by Cornell faculty and guest artists, including pianist Dr. Richard Kogan, clarinetist Armand Ambrosini, pianist Frank Daykin, soprano Judith Kellock and poet Joanie MacKowski

FRIDAY, June 3, 2011, 2:30 - 4:30 PM

- II. Observing Art

Participatory Performance by Bobby McFerrin

Panel Discussion moderated by David Skorton, President, Cornell, with guest panelists Dr. Richard Kogan, Dr. David Shapiro, Dr. Carlyle Miller and Misheila Neil

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Panel discussion and performances on the general topic "The Arts and Mental Health" will address the importance and impact of participatory and presentational art in the lives of the general population, and in particular, members of the academic, musical, medical and psychiatric communities. Open to the public.

For information contact Judith Kellock, CCA Interim Director or Pamela Lafayette, CCA Program Coordinator: ccpa@cornell.edu, 607.255.7274

Bobby McFerrin photo by Carol Friedman

